Local Police Officers Take Kids Fishing

LANGTON, ON: Police officers from Norfolk County OPP Detachment will be available to help kids cast a line and have a whole lot of fun during the Kids, Cops and Canadian Tire Fishing Day on Saturday, August 9, 2025 from 8 AM to 12 PM at Deer Creek Conservation Area.

The derby would not be possible without the gracious contributions from the many local businesses including:

- Adventure RV
- Canadian National Sports Fishing
- Creative Design Ink
- Crimestoppers: Haldimand/Norfolk
- DMT Embroidery
- L.D. Sinden Holdings Inc.
- Lucky Strike Bait Works LTD
- Macdonald Turkey Point Marina
- Norfolk County OPP Detachment
- Ontario Provincial Police Association (OPPA)
- Ontario Power Generations
- Ramblin Road Brewery Farm
- Shannon & Nikki Porter – Porter Lumber
- Unilever
- Waterford Sand & Gravel Limited
- Zehrs Tillsonburg

The derby, open to youth 16 and under, offers a fun opportunity for kids and their families to create lasting memories and develop a passion for fishing. Cast from shore or launch a non-motorized or electric boat and fish the farther sections of the reservoir.

Cost: $5/child (plus Conservation Area admission)

Registration: 8 AM the day of the event.

This event is supported by the Canadian National Sportfishing Foundation, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to promoting and protecting recreational fishing for all Canadians, and by the generous financial contribution of Canadian Tire.
